

PERSONALS

(From Saturday's Daily Miner)

M. L. Powers of Flagstaff is in Kingman to see the finishing touches put on the handsome new bank quarters in the Citizens' Bank building.

J. R. Russell is again at home in Kingman after a visit of several weeks in Los Angeles.

Louise Williams came in from the Sandy yesterday and took the evening train to Los Angeles.

J. B. Knudsen is a guest of the Brunswick hotel in Kingman from Lost Basin.

J. E. Shank of Chloride is in Kingman on business.

Howard Wells is a Kingman visitor from the hills.

E. A. See of Valentine, Arizona, is one of the visitors here.

George W. Long of Oatman is a guest of the Beale.

J. K. P. Fancher is in town from his ranch on the Big Sandy to spend a day or so in Kingman.

M. L. Powers of the Citizens Bank came down from Flagstaff yesterday, and is attending to his many duties in connection with that institution.

J. R. Murphy is a visitor in Kingman from Chloride.

Frank Foley and wife came in from Chloride yesterday and spent last night as guests of the Beale.

H. O. Hulin is a Prescott resident visiting Kingman.

(From Sunday's Daily Miner)
F. L. Beard, associated with the Daily Miner for the past year, leaves for Bakersfield, Cal., this morning to make his home. He and Howard Smith will make the trip in Beard's automobile.

W. K. Ridenour is one of the residents of Mohave county visiting in Los Angeles.

Raymond H. Carr returned home from Nevada Friday, where he has been for a month attending to his ranch interests.

R. L. Gray is a visitor to Kingman from the Sandy.

Charles F. Spilman and wife came over from Oatman yesterday and are guests of the Beale Hotel in Kingman. Mr. Spilman is the publicity man for the Oatman Bureau of Mines and has served in that capacity for some time past.

J. T. Degman and Joseph F. Knoff of Chloride are visiting Kingman from the lead camp.

J. R. Richey, a salesman of Phoenix, is in Kingman covering this territory on his regular rounds.

J. N. Tracy, formerly associated with the Desert Power and Water company, arrived in Kingman Friday night and is a guest at the Brunswick. Mr. Tracy now is engaged in mining.

J. W. Oney and Chris Votd, of the Wallapai Copper company, spent yesterday in Kingman on business.

Mrs. Jesse T. Martin leaves today for a three weeks' visit at Marietta Hot Springs, Cal. Upon her return she will resume her music class.

Ed. Carrow and family and Ira M. George and family leave today in an automobile to visit their property in the Crozier ranch district above Lackberry.

G. B. Lindsley, editor of the De Luxe edition of the Mohave Miner, is spending Sunday in the cattle section west of Peach Springs.

Jesse H. Baker, Phoenix optician, is in Kingman attending to the wants of his patients.

Mrs. Judge George Shea entertained a party of young folks at her home Friday evening, dancing being the feature of the occasion.

Mrs. G. R. Franklin was a Friday afternoon bridge hostess to a group of Kingman ladies. Mrs. H. M. Crowther carried off the prize.

(From Tuesday's Daily Miner.)
H. Klotzsch and E. H. Holland are Kingman visitors from Yucca.

M. Dunbar and M. Duchaine are Oatmanites visiting Kingman.

F. J. Benzer and wife, Joseph C. Kemp and J. M. Little formed a small delegation from Wright Creek visiting Kingman Sunday.

J. N. James and wife were Kingman visitors Sunday from Chloride.

Telly Bland is in Kingman from his ranch on the Big Sandy.

Frank L. Warren of Prescott spent Sunday in Kingman.

Willis S. Brown is a Flagstaff resident visiting Kingman.

F. A. Kelly and Joe Heidrich were Sunday visitors to Kingman from Golconda.

J. J. Kaster and family were guests of the Commercial hotel last evening. They form a party en route from El Paso, Texas, to the coast.

W. F. Lamareaux and Hyrum Schneider of Salt Lake City, Utah, arrived in Kingman from that place on Sunday and are in the Chloride field looking over some mining properties.

F. L. Jakubik came in from Yuma, Arizona, Sunday and has taken the position of machineman on the Daily Miner force, recently made vacant by the resignation of F. L. Beard, who has gone to Bakersfield, California.

Jesse Wilkins of Golconda is a Kingman visitor.

F. C. De Witt is visiting Kingman from Chloride.

J. E. Kelton and wife arrived from Needles yesterday and are visitors here.

D. F. Eselin and wife of Minneapolis, Minnesota, are tourists en route who stopped in Kingman last evening. A. M. Hinds of St. Louis, Missouri, is accompanying as chauffeur.

Laura Fancher and M. J. Westcott are Sandy people visiting Kingman.

H. C. Topp of Oatman is here from that camp.

W. E. Campbell and G. Eill are in Kingman from McCracken mine in the southern part of the Wallapais.

J. C. Bothwell is a Kingman visitor from Secret Pass.

S. Furze of Phoenix is visiting in Kingman.

J. A. Nieset and wife and H. J. Alexander are in town from the Mineral Park.

Mrs. E. R. Ferguson and son spent last night in Kingman from Valentine, Arizona.

W. R. Conroy of Jerome, Arizona, was a guest of the Brunswick Sunday.

George Lockwood is a visitor to Kingman from Stockton Hill.

Miss Helena Whitney returned to her home in Los Angeles last Friday morning after a visit of a month or more with her brother, I. J. Whitney and family.

Asa W. Lebaron is an Oatman resident visiting Kingman.

S. J. Byers is in Kingman from Stockton Hill.

Mrs. A. Ericson returned from the coast Sunday, where she had been visiting.

Harry Underwood returned from Los Angeles yesterday, where he went with A. D. Coolidge, who sustained a fractured arm in a fall at the courthouse recently. He reported that Mr. Coolidge's arm was fractured above the elbow and that he was improving.

Father Joseph Hootsman returned to Flagstaff last night after a brief stay in Kingman.

(From Wednesday's Daily Miner)
Charles J. Fisk of San Francisco, representing the Intertype corporation, visited the Miner office yesterday.

J. F. Huckel of Kansas City, general superintendent of the news department of the Fred Harvey system, spent Tuesday in Kingman on business.

W. S. Webb, operating the Tidal Wave in the Weaver country, spent yesterday in Kingman conferring with local mining men. The Tidal Wave company has ordered a new truck and it is expected daily.

John C. Ingram, who has been critically ill at the Gully hospital, was reported improving yesterday.

J. B. Knudsen came in from the Lost Basin section yesterday and is a guest of the Brunswick.

Mrs. J. B. Barksdale is a visitor to Kingman from Chloride.

(From Wednesday's Daily Miner)
John C. Ingram underwent an operation at the Gully hospital yesterday and was reported last night to be in a serious condition.

KINGMAN MEN GO TO PRESIDIO FOR TRAINING IN ARMY

(From Tuesday's Daily Miner)

M. B. Belden, employed by the Mohave Assay company, left this morning for the Presidio, San Francisco, where he will prepare for a commission as first lieutenant of infantry in the regular army. Mr. Belden yesterday received a telegram requesting him to come to the Presidio immediately to begin training. He enlisted some time ago in the officers reserve corps, along with a number of other Kingman men. Frederick Blodgett, roadmaster of the Santa Fe, is expected to leave soon to begin training.

As soon as members of the reserve corps receive their commissions they are expected to be assigned to regiments either in direct command for active service or to train other officers and men. The army in this way contemplates the training of the first contingents called under the selective draft system. Mr. Belden has lived in Kingman some time, coming here from Portland, Ore. He has been instructing the home guards.

TRANSCRIPT OF PUBLIC RECORDS

(Furnished by Mohave County Abstract & Title Co.)

(From Tuesday's Daily Miner)

Mining Deeds.
Orion Mining & Milling Co. to Gold Key Mining Co.

Orion Mining & Milling Co. to Gold Dust Mining Co.

Harmon W. Corwin & Margaret B. Corwin to Walter M. McCafferty.

Harmon W. Corwin & Margaret B. Corwin to Lee W. Galloway.

Harmon W. Corwin & Margaret B. Corwin to Ross C. McCafferty.

Quit Claim Deed.
Hugh Spearman to Lee R. Myers.

J. M. Little to George L. Greer.

J. M. Little to Fred J. Bengert.

David Hatch to Elmore J. Welch.

Elmore J. and Hattie Welch to Lucy A. Buckley.

Warranty Deed.
Lovin & Withers Co. to Lee Meyers.

Lovin & Withers Co. to Daisy Lillian Coffey.

Location Notices.
John Mitchell (1).

John Rador, John Mitchell (2).

James B. Speed, John Mulligan, Jr., (1).

W. M. Bryant, (1).

J. C. Rankin, J. P. Ryan (1).

John C. Tinsley (Amended) (1).

Record Lode Mining Co. (Amended) (10).

H. T. Blackwell, John Gill (Amended) (1).

Lease.
Mohave County to E. McCarrow.

Notice and Claim of Lien.
John B. Knorr vs. William H. Hall.

Articles of Incorporation.
I. X. L. Consolidated Mines Co.

Bill of Sale.
David Hatch to Elmore J. Welch.

Elmore J. & Hattie Welch to Lucy A. Buckley.

Realty Mortgage & Chattel.
Elmore J. & Hattie Welch to Lucy A. Buckley.

E. W. Miller and W. Young were Oatman visitors in Kingman yesterday.

A. M. MacDuffee of Chloride was in Kingman yesterday on business.

J. F. Humber of the Arizona Butte camp spent yesterday conferring with local mining men.

James F. Rehling and William Beauvais of Oatman were in Kingman on business yesterday.

W. L. Peters, traveling salesman for Swift and Co., out of Los Angeles, was calling on local business men yesterday.

P. L. Mullen of Oatman of the Sunnyside gold mine was in Kingman on business yesterday.

T. E. Pollock of Flagstaff, one of the owners of the Arizona Central bank, was here on banking business yesterday.

George F. Beveridge, with the Diana mine at Chloride yesterday, was a Kingman visitor.

W. J. Bailey, well known Needles attorney, was here on legal business yesterday.

A. A. Johns of Prescott, prominent sheep man, was calling on local business and stock men Tuesday.

Henry Lovin returned to Kingman yesterday after a two months' visit in California, where he attended to his business interests there.

COMMITTEE APPEALS FOR HELP IN SELLING CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS

(From Wednesday's Daily Miner.)

The committee in charge of the sale of Chautauqua tickets last night appealed to the people of Kingman for support in meeting the $1,200 guarantee. The public was urged to purchase their tickets direct from members of the committee, it being pointed out that only in this way could the business men, who were instrumental in bringing the Chautauqua here for a week, beginning next Saturday, be assured of the financial guarantee.

C. N. Nickell is chairman of the ticket committee. Other members are Miss Hetty Cline, Gladys Prebble, M. E. Jenkins, Lodema Cook, Ruth Long Mabel Carrow, Ramona Ridenour, Alta Miller, Florence Parsons and Esther Menefee. In addition, the tickets are on sale at the Rosetree Candy Shop, the Cherry drug store and the Citizens bank.

The big tent for the Chautauqua will be erected on the vacant lots near the Elks home Saturday morning and everything, it is stated, will be ready for the opening number Saturday.

RECORD LODGE CO. PUTS IN MACHINERY

(From Sunday's Daily Miner)

One of the big teams of Lovin and Withers company left Kingman yesterday loaded with a hoist and other machinery for the Record Lode Mining company in the Oatman section.

This property is one of the promising properties of that district and as soon as the machinery is installed a vigorous campaign will be inaugurated.

The claims are located on the extension of the Old Hardy vein, and an 80 foot shaft has been sunk with a windlass, the ore on the surface giving a value of $6 and in the bottom of the shaft $16. The width of the vein is said to be in the neighborhood of 16 feet, and the parties owning the property feel assured that they have one of the best showings in the district.

Lee R. Myers and associates of Oatman are the promoters of this company.

WILLEY TO OPERATE MINERAL PARK MINE

(From Tuesday's Daily Miner)

W. J. Willey, accompanied by U. C. Tainton, both of Berkeley, Cal., arrived in Kingman yesterday morning, and last evening departed for Mineral Park, where Mr. Willey is interested in mining property. While here Mr. Willey proposes to incorporate a company to operate the mines, which are just now showing splendid bodies of ore. The mines are in the eastern part of the Mineral Park basin and have been opened to below the 200 level.

Mr. Tainton is a metallurgist of worldwide note, having been in South Africa many years as the representative of the Charles Butters company. Mr. Tainton has charge of the laboratory of that company in Berkeley, and is here to look over the country to ascertain the nature of the ores and the possibility of investments in the mines.

Golf Fans Make Good Scores On Links Near Town

(From Tuesday's Daily Miner)

C. N. Nickells, Dan Bosqui and J. S. Speed Sunday succumbed to the golf germ which has been prevalent at times in Kingman and played a few rounds on the links north of town. While the course was not in excellent condition, yet they were able to make some good scores. Mr. Nickells played eighteen holes in 101 and Mr. Bosqui and Mr. Speed played nine holes in 67 and 56, respectively.

CHLORIDE TONNAGE SHOWS BIG INCREASE

(From Sunday's Daily Miner)

Freight tonnage at Chloride in April this year was more than three times as heavy as it was in April last year, according to figures compiled by J. M. McMillan, agent of the Santa Fe branch. The tonnage this year was 12,353,982 pounds and receipts were $21,890.

TOWN TOPICS

(From Tuesday's Daily Miner)

REBEKAHS TO MEET

The ladies of the local lodge of Rebekahs will give a cafeteria dinner at the Odd Fellows hall next Sunday from 12 noon to 6 p. m.

Everyone is invited to attend and help a good cause along, as the ladies are trying hard to swell their fund.

WICKES GOES EAST

L. W. Wickes, who went to San Francisco recently to join the officers reserve corps of the army, has gone to New York, according to word received in Kingman yesterday. Mr. Wickes is expected to be attached to the eastern division of the reserve corps.

SON BORN

Born to the wife of Gus Rofinot last evening a baby boy weighing 8 pounds. Mother and child were doing well at the last report.

MISS HILTY HERE

Miss Buena Hilty, daughter of I. D. Hilty, arrived home on No. 7 yesterday morning, for a week's visit with her parents.

Miss Hilty is teaching school at Seligman and has been under quarantine for some time for alleged smallpox. Miss Hilty, however, claims that she suffered from no worse malady than a light attack of measles. She complains of what she considers unjust treatment in connection with the quarantine, saying she was held as a smallpox suspect on the strength of a hasty first diagnosis.

Miss Hilty will return to Seligman shortly to finish out the school term.

CARLOAD OF MACHINERY

A carload of machinery has just been unloaded for the United Eastern mine at Oatman and is being hauled to that mine by the Lovin and Withers teams. The machinery consists of small parts for the mill.

REBEKAHS TO SERVE DINNER

There will be a cafeteria dinner served by the Rebekahs at the Odd Fellows hall next Sunday from 4 to 6. Everybody invited. By order of the committee.

NO. 7 IS DUBBED THE "HONEYMOON SPECIAL"

No. 7 yesterday morning might well have been termed "The Bridal Special." On arrival at Kingman this train had four Ash Fork couples bound for various honeymoon points on the coast; another couple boarded the train at Kingman, and several other couples from farther east acted suspiciously, to say the least.

PLEADS GUILTY

C. E. Mercier pleaded guilty in the superior court yesterday to the charge of bootlegging and was fined $100 and sentenced to 100 days in the county jail.

GETS $1,000 VERDICT

J. W. Oney was awarded a verdict of $1,000 against the Victor Copper company yesterday. He was suing to recover for money alleged to be due for work performed for the company.

GET MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license was issued yesterday to James Arthur Elmer and Miss Edith Ashmore, both of Oatman.

CLERKS STRIKE

Nine employees of the Lovin & Withers company went on strike yesterday morning. The men, employed in all departments, are said to have expressed unwillingness to take orders from a new department head and announced they were quitting. One of the men returned to work yesterday.

OATMAN COUPLE WED

Miss Hattie Murphy and Herman E. McFarlan, a popular young couple of Oatman, were married yesterday by Justice of the Peace J. H. Smith in his office at the courthouse.

TO ENTERTAIN HUSBANDS

Members of the Women's Club of Kingman will entertain the husbands at a reception to be held at the Odd Fellows' home tomorrow.

MRS. BURNS ENTERTAINS

On Monday last Mrs. Ellen Burns entertained with a beautifully appointed luncheon, the honoree being Mrs. William Ware of Somerset, Pa. Covers were laid for nine and included besides the hostess and guest of honor, Mesdames Hoskins, Walker, Leonard, Taburn, Forrest, MacLuckie and Overstreet. The entertainment for the afternoon consisted of games and music, Mrs. Leonard winning the prize in a cleverly arranged guessing contest which brought back school days to the participants. The prize was a pretty tea apron. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Miss Eva Burns.

AYERS-DUTTON NUPTIALS

(From Tuesday's Daily Miner)

Friends of Miss Josephine Ayers and Charles A. Dutton were surprised to learn yesterday that the popular young couple were married Sunday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Ayers. It was generally known that their wedding had been planned for the month of June, but the couple decided to spring a surprise on their friends. Only members of the immediate family were present. The groom had been associated with his father in the conduct of the Kingman dairy for some time, and the bride has been teaching school at Williams. Mr. Dutton formerly was a resident of Flagstaff.

FORMER FRIENDS WED

Guy Mensch of Kingman and Anna Mae Gibson of Los Angeles were quietly married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Barry last evening.

The young people were acquaintances in Los Angeles, and it remained but for the coming of Miss Gibson to this place some time back for its renewal, which soon ripened into love and culminated in marriage yesterday. They will make their home in Kingman.

Miss Lula May Dacy and R. M. Davis of Valverde, Tex., were married by Justice of the Peace J. H. Smith in his office at the courthouse yesterday.

Miss Margaret Gray of Los Angeles and Arthur Estee Levers of Buffalo, N. Y., were married in Kingman on May 3. The Rev. Mr. Thomas Dodd officiated.

I. C. Stricker and bride, formerly Miss Vera DeLashmott, returned from their honeymoon on the coast yesterday. They will make their home in Kingman, where Mr. Stricker is associated with the Livian Mining company.

KINGMAN PARTY VISIT CARROW RANCH

(From Tuesday's Daily Miner)

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carrow of the Crozier ranch above Hackberry were hosts to a party of Kingman people at their ranch Sunday. Those partaking of Mr. and Mrs. Carrow's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Ira George and son, Donald; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Carrow and children, and representatives of the Daily Miner staff. Following a sumptuous dinner the entire party visited the Carrow Brothers' ranch holdings, comprising 30,000 acres, which is one of the largest properties in northwest Arizona.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEARING ORE

CHLORIDE, Ariz., May 7. — The Sunday School group (Chloride Queen Mining Company) is having a tunnel driven by contract on its claim. This tunnel is in 75 feet and the face shows indications of proximity to ore, the material carrying increasing quantities of iron and quartz. Sam Rhea has the contract.

AUSENHUS BUILDING RESIDENCE

L. M. Campbell has drawn plans for a five room bungalow, with bath, for Joe Ausehus, and will superintend its construction. The building material will be composed of cement blocks, patterned after the new process invented by Dan Pitzel, of Los Angeles. The partitions will be of the same material, indicating that Joe is building for all time. Mr. Pitzel expects to establish a factory here to manufacture his cement blocks.

MISS LONG'S GRADE TO ENTERTAIN

The children of the Chloride primary grade will give an entertainment in the Miners Union hall, Chloride, Friday, May 11, commencing at 7:30 p. m. The entertainment will consist of recitations, drills, plays, and vocal and instrumental music, and will be an endeavor on the part of the little ones to raise a small sum of money to provide some playthings for their playground which boasts only an old rope swing as its sole furnishing. It will be an opportunity for the friends of the little children to assist in this worthy cause and to bring into effect the equipment which the tots are striving to secure.

No admission will be charged, but a collection will be taken up inside the hall. Everyone is invited.

KINGMANITES WINNERS BALL GAME

These prominent residents of Kingman were observed in the crowd that witnessed the baseball game here Sunday between Kingman and Chloride: H. H. Watkins, wife and party; Captain Ray Franklin, of the Arizona Engineering Company, wife and party; County Supervisors L. H. Foster and Charles Lynch, with their families; Tom Devine, of the Beale hotel, wife and party; and Mert Wagner, wife and party.

The day was perfect for motoring and every member of the visiting parties enjoyed the short stay in Chloride.